The Sellers have bought elsewhere and have made it very clear that they will be selling at Saturday's Auction. Don't miss this rare opportunity to secure a home in this Highside precinct.

C1920 Queenslander, St Aidans Precinct.

This is the home your family has been waiting for. Perfectly positioned on an elevated North facing block, located in Corinda's highside, close to St Aidans, this private family home should not be missed.

Boasting charm and character, this expansive 4 bedroom, two level property has maintained many of its original features including bay windows, VJ walls and feature panelling, giving the modern renovation a unique edge.

The homes facade is impressive, with a palette of colours that are fresh, modern and welcoming, as well as 3m high ceilings, character windows, doors and frames, all simply setting the scene for something special.

Polished timber floor boards gleam under foot, which bring to life the open plan living space. A central designer style kitchen takes pride of place, fringed by the living and a dining areas.

An outdoor timber deck provides a desirable alfresco dining option, with a serene setting overlooking the pool, lush gardens and separate pool house.
